b) Review of Related Party Transactions

Related Party Transactions will be referred to the next regularly scheduled meeting of Audit Committee for review and approval. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in any Related Party Transaction will recuse him or her and abstain from discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction.

To review a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will be provided with all relevant material information of the Related Party Transaction, including the terms of the transaction, the business purpose of the transaction, the benefits to the Company and to the Related Party, and any other relevant matters. In determining whether to approve a Related Party Transaction, the Committee will consider the following factors, among others, to the extent relevant to the Related Party Transaction:

- i. Whether the terms of the Related Party Transaction are fair and on arm's length basis to the Company and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- ii. Whether there are any compelling business reasons for the Company to enter into the Related Party Transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- iii. Whether the RPT was undertaken in the Ordinary course of business of the Company.
- iv. Whether the Related Party Transaction would affect the independence of an independent director;
- v. Whether the proposed transaction includes any potential reputational risk issues that may arise as a result of or in connection with the proposed transaction;
- vi. Whether the Company was notified about the Related Party Transaction before its

- commencement and if not, why pre-approval was not sought and whether subsequent ratification is allowed and would be detrimental to the Company;
- vii. Whether the proposed transaction is repetitive in nature and an omnibus approval is requested for the same;
  - viii. Whether the proposed transaction is a material transaction based on the approximate value of the transaction.
  - ix. Whether the Related Party Transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any director or Key Managerial Personnel of the Company, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, Executive Officer or other<sup>2]</sup> Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the director's, Key Managerial Personnel's or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship and any other factors the Board/Committee deems relevant.
  - x. Required statutory and public disclosure, if any;

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

The agenda of the Board meeting at which the resolution is proposed to be considered shall disclose:

- a) The name of the related party and nature of relationship;
- b) The nature, duration of the contract and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- c) The material terms of the contract or arrangement including the value, if any;
- d) Any advance paid or received for the contract or arrangement, if any;
- e) The manner of determining the pricing and other commercial terms, both included as part of contract and not considered as part of the contract;
- f) Whether all factors relevant to the contract have been considered, if not, the details of factors not considered with the rationale for not considering those factors; and
- g) Any other information relevant or important for the Board to take a decision on the proposed transaction.

Where any director is interested in any contract or arrangement with a Related Party, such director shall not be present at the meeting during discussions on the subject matter of the resolution relating to such contract or arrangement.

The explanatory statement to be annexed to the notice of a general meeting convened pursuant to section 102 of the Companies Act, 2013 shall contain the following particulars namely:-

- a) Name of the related party;
- b) Name of the director or key managerial personnel who is related, if any;
- c) Nature of relationship;
- d) Nature, material terms, monetary value and particulars of the contract or arrangement;
- e) Any other information relevant or important for the members to take a decision on the proposed resolution.

9. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS NOT APPROVED UNDER THIS POLICY

In the event the Company becomes aware of a Related Party Transaction with a Related Party that has not been approved under this Policy prior to its consummation, the matter shall be reviewed by the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall consider all of the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Committee under this Policy, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Audit Committee/Board/Shareholders determine not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without prior approval, the Audit Committee/Board/Shareholders, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee/Board has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

10. DISCLOSURE

(*The Company shall submit within 30 days from the date of publication of its standalone and consolidated financial results for the half year, disclosures of related party transactions on a consolidated basis, in the format specified in the relevant accounting standards for annual results to the stock exchanges and publish the same on its website.)

*(*Effective from the half year ending March 31, 2019)*

(*Disclosure of transactions of the Company with any person or entity belonging to the promoter/promoter group which hold(s) 10% or more shareholding in the listed entity, in the format prescribed in the relevant accounting standards for annual results.)

*(*Effective from Annual Report for the year ending March 31, 2019)*

11. AMENDMENT

This Policy shall stand amended in terms of the Companies Act, 2013, the rules made thereunder including the Companies (Meetings of Board and its Powers) Rules, 2014, and Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations 2015, as amended from time to time. In the event of any conflict between this Policy and the Applicable Law, the Applicable Law shall prevail. The Board or the Audit Committee, as authorised by the Board, may review and amend this Policy from time to time. Any amendment to this Policy will be in writing.

This Policy will be communicated to all operational employees and other concerned persons of the Company.
