

That's what we call fancy: Manish Arora

PHOTOS: MANOJ VARMA

Raise the toast: Suneeet Varma with Ute Schumacher

Say cheese: (L-R) Gunjita, Navneet Kalra and Bharti Bhalla

Dazzling evening

Elegant in white: Shweta Nanda

Itee Dewan

The convention centre at the Taj Palace Hotel looked like a crystal palace as Swarovski creations by designers (from international names like John Galliano, Vivienne Westwood and Vera Wang to our very own Suneeet Varma, Tarun Tahiliani, Manish Arora and JJ Valaya), design houses like Victor & Rolf and jewellery designer Farah Khan decked up the place. The occasion was the launch of Unbridled, a coffee-table book on Swarovski designs by world-renowned designers. Khan, who glided around in a little black dress, wore a Swarovski neckpiece that was much admired. Incidentally, she is keen to build her name into a brand. Resplendent in an off-white churidar kurta, Shweta Nanda stuck to her favourite designers, Abu Jani and Sandeep Khosla. "I am partial to them," she said. The event, which has already been to Paris, London, Barcelona and Tokyo, will head to New York and Shanghai from here.

Poised: Ameeta Seth (L) with Puneet Juneja

Petite lady: Farah Khan

Cool style: Suman Jayakrishnan

Bling factor: Saloli

I never had a sister and, well, now I have one. I adore her, because the way she looks after my brother is the most amazing thing — Shweta Nanda on bhabi Aishwarya Rai Bachchan

TOP