

Hindustan Motors to expand Mitsubishi dealer network

■ NEW DELHI: Hindustan Motors on Monday said it would expand dealerships for Mitsubishi products to 45 by the end of this year as part of its plans to shore up sales in India. Currently, it has 33 Mitsubishi dealerships in the country. "By the end of 2008, we will have 45 dealer locations pan-India and north India will continue to be our focus where we already have 10 dealerships," HM managing director Ravi Santhanam said. HM and Mitsubishi have a partnership under which the Indian firm sells the Japanese auto maker's products, including Lancer, Cedia, Pajero and Montero. The company on Monday opened its relocated dealership in Gurgaon.
